I would like to ask you and the city council to leave the griffin patch as it is. It's been the symbol of the police department for 56 years and was never intended to intimidate or cause fear in anyone. The patch is a symbol of pride for the men and women of the department; both currently serving and retired. It's a shame that the image reminds some people of the various forms of the KKK dragons. I'm sure that was not Jack Bender's intent when he designed the patch. Thank you for your time.
